

Contents

Contributors	vii
Editorial	ix
Christina Baird	1
Taking Scotland Overseas: A Study of Scottish Exhibits and Scottish Connections at the International Exhibitions beyond British Shores, With Special Reference to the Vienna International Exhibition/Weltausstellung, 1873
Ellen L. Beard	28
Fuinn air an inntinn : A Case Study in the Composition of Eighteenth-century Gaelic Song
Karen Bek-Pedersen	58
Macbeth and ‘The Weird Sisters’ – on Fates and Witches
Ronald Black	81
The Ear of the Beholder: John Mackenzie of The Beauties
Meg Hyland	180
‘ Tam o’ Shanter’s Geansaidh Snàith ’: The Innovative Work Songs of Gaelic-Speaking Herring Gutters
Emily Lyle and John Shaw	221
An Interpretation of ‘how the Wran come out of Ailssay’ (Gavin Douglas, The Palice of Honour , l. 1713) as a Version of the Cumulative Tale ‘Henny Penny’
Alasdair Roberts	228
Friendship, Faith and the Bard MacLean
Book Reviews	257
Margaret A. Mackay	260
Stewart Forson Sanderson	